1. The dates of "Sale" & "Re-Sale" are not given. It is <sup>however</sup> ~~referred~~ that both events occurred on the same day. If so the amount decided at the 2nd Re-Sale should have been taken as the ~~ent~~ demand and the defaulter simply proceeded against for a breach of the conditions of the Sale Notice. A note to this effect with the results thereof being made in the report/sales we have supplied for all practical purposes. Such a course we have advocated complications in accounts and rendered the submission of the present Sp<sup>l</sup> appl<sup>g</sup> for remission unnecessary.

2. The amount of the next lower bid sh<sup>d</sup> have been taken & put up for competition. It sh<sup>d</sup> be reported if this was done in this instance & if so what that am<sup>t</sup> <sup>was</sup> ~~is~~ whether the sum reported was better than it is not.

3. The amount given in col 6 as Rs 557-13 should evidently be 657-13 & that is recommended for remission. Rs 607-13 + Rs 507-13 - this error sh<sup>d</sup> not have occurred at all, <sup>however</sup> ~~was~~ <sup>occurred</sup> in the ~~Ex/~~ <sup>Revenue</sup> Office - The correct amt sh<sup>d</sup> now be ascertained & reported with reference to the figures given in cols 3 & 4.

4. The answer recorded in col. 1 is evidently an error. The state is returned for revision.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith copy of letter N<sup>o</sup>  $\frac{208}{112}$ , dated  $\frac{11}{13}$  th instant, from the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar District, together with the original Remission Statement therewith received, for Rs. 507-13- being the amount due by Eadigar Hanuma of Kolar on account of the loss which accrued to Government in consequence of the resale of the Toddy Vend Farms of the Kolar taluk for the year 1893-94, the said individual having failed to deposit one-twentieth of his bid, I have the honor to recommend that the amount being irrecoverable as reported by the Deputy Commissioner, it may be ordered to be written off the accounts.

No. 112

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice a case of default made by Ediga Hanuma of Kolar. At the sale of the Toddy Vend farms of the Kolar Taluk he offered Rupees 6215-10-0 for the 15 months ended 30 June 1894, but failed to pay the initial deposit of 1/20th of the amount of his bid. The farms had therefore to be re-sold at a loss of Rupees 557-13-0.

2. The defaulter has paid Rupees 50, the entrance fee - - - - - entitling him to bid at the sale. It is reported that the man has no property to make good the loss resulting from the re-sale that he is an insolvent who earned his livelihood by drawing today for others and that he has since left his village. As there is very little chance of recovering the amount outstanding against him, I would recommend that permission may be obtained for its being written off the accounts
